Nestled in the heart of Nunawading, 7/251 Springfield offers an ideal, compact living space for homeowners and investors alike. Combining a perfect blend of comfort and convenience, this property brings to the table an attractive low-maintenance lifestyle. Compact yet holding a spacious feel, this two-bedroom abode features one bathroom and car space. No space is wasted as each part of the property holds functional value. The property inside has been kept in excellent condition, with sleek lined oak timber flooring, contemporary kitchen with well-presented skirtings and walls. There is also a garden space in the porch to express your creative side to conjure the best impression for family and friends who visit. Positioned in a great location, you will find yourself surrounded by ample public transport options such as Blackburn and Nunawading train station and bus stops which align along Springfield Road. Just down the road there is a variety of facilities such as Blackburn Square, Blackburn High School, Early Learning Centres and Koonung Reserve Tennis Club. Right behind the property, there is Nicoll Park Playground and Whitehorse Primary School. If you're looking to venture out further, the Eastern Freeway can be easily accessed around corner. To avoid any disappointment in having the chance to own property that blends comfort and suburban living in an idealistic location, book an inspection today or get in touch with us.
