Located on the corner of one of Ringwood's best tree lined streets, this sparkling unit in a boutique complex is primed for lifestyle convenience only a few minutes' walk to Eastland, Ringwood's Business District, Ringwood Square, Costco and the train station. Eastlink connectivity is just around the corner as too are the walking/cycling tracks of the Mullum Mullum Creek Trail and Eastlink Trail. Defined by its low maintenance ease and walk to everything locale, the residence also boasts new carpets, new lighting and new paint throughout delivering a fresh and contemporary palette to complement your busy lifestyle. Flaunting stone benches and a communal island, the kitchen takes centre stage of the open plan domain and features sleek stainless-steel appliances including a brand-new cook top. The living/dining zone is generous in size for a unit and designed for comfort with glass sliders flowing out to a delightful east facing alfresco balcony with leafy vistas – the ideal spot for a morning brew or an after-work wine. Accommodation comprises two generous-sized bedrooms both with built-in-robies, and a gleaming central bathroom with separate shower and full sized bath. Other features include reverse cycle split system air conditioning for seasonal comfort, Euro laundry, secure basement car space, storage cage and security entry for peace of mind.
