Captivating with its renewed vibrancy and chic style, this entirely renovated 2-bedroom townhome offers a mix of spacious sophistication and contemporary comfort just steps from the center of Frankston and its sun-kissed shoreline. A spacious lounge offers genuine space separate to the vibrant kitchen and meals area, showcasing the perfect setting for gourmet creations and entertaining for the avid home chef by the sunbathed rear courtyard. The upstairs domain showcases two inviting bedrooms with built-in robes, with the main bedroom boasting access to the deep balcony and near-immediate access to the stylish central bathroom and separate toilet. The inclusion of separate toilets on each level, a downstairs laundry, and a single garage with internal entry adds welcome practicality, while its revered position places you just moments away from vibrant Frankston amenities, cafes, and public transport, with an enviable lifestyle revolving around the breathtaking natural beauty of Kananook Creek and the Frankston foreshore just steps from your front door.
