Beautifully renovated and spacious Gaby Hubay designed Penthouse in the tightly held Domain Precinct with spectacular views of the city skyline, MCG and parklands on the edge of the Botanic Gardens. The scale of the magnificent open plan living and dining room with wrap around northwest terraces and floor to ceiling glass invites relaxed living or entertaining, while admiring the spectacular views and sunsets. Newly renovated kitchen with white calacatta marble benches and splashback, European appliances, integrated fridge/freezer and a built-in bar is perfect for entertaining. The luxurious master suite with stone ensuite and underfloor heating and walk in robe opens to its own L-shaped balcony. There are two additional double bedrooms, one fitted as a study, a third balcony and stylish bathroom. With direct lift access, this stunning penthouse, in a boutique building of just seven, also features high ceilings, timber flooring, luxury fixtures and fittings, ducted heating/cooling, gas fireplace surrounded by white calacatta marble, video intercom, Insinkerator, automated curtains, powder-room, separate laundry, built in Miele BBQ, ample storage and 2 basement car-spaces. This is a rare lifestyle opportunity to secure a stylish and luxuriously appointed Penthouse in the tightly held Domain Precinct with breathtaking views, just metres to the Botanic Gardens, Domain Road's restaurants and cafes, elite schools and walking distance to the CBD, MCG and Sports Hub.
