Unit 7 at 33 Forbes Street offers the ideal home base for young professionals, first-time buyers and investors seeking the perfect balance of city buzz and serene, leafy streets. Situated just one block from Northbourne Avenue, only a 20-minute walk to the Canberra CBD and closely positioned to public transport, everything you need is within easy reach. The light rail stop, just a short walk around the corner, offers seamless connection to the city, Dickson Town Centre, Farmers Markets at EPIC and beyond. Or, jump on a scooter and head across to vibrant Braddon for delicious coffee or wonderful cocktails. With countless shops, restaurants, cafes and entertainment at your fingertips, you might find your car collecting dust and need to buy a bike instead! Back at home, the living space opens onto a huge east-facing balcony where there's plenty of room to entertain. Quality stainless steel appliances and stone benchtops feature in the kitchen and there's a space-saving European laundry just outside the convenient two-way bathroom. The main is a good size, with direct access to the balcony and bathroom, while the study nook gives you a separate space to study or work from home. Surrounded by some of Canberra's most vibrant suburbs, this is a great investment or first home for uni students, singles or couples. With quality finishes and an outstanding location all the benefits of living on the city fringe can be yours.
