Providing a light-filled escape that seems a world away from the endless selection of amenities in Merimbula's favourite seaside playground, this boutique apartment has something for everyone. Spread out and relax in perfect peace and privacy in the generous living and dining room that flows effortlessly to the streamlined open-plan kitchen with plenty of work and cupboard space. Northern sunlight beams into the main bedroom, which accompanies a second bedroom and a sparkling central bathroom fitted with the convenience of washing machine. Also enjoy the benefits of a car space and with no management rights the property gives you great flexibility all located in an immaculately maintained complex with swimming pool and only a short walk to Merimbula's best beaches.
