On offer is this modern, very open and spacious brick home which will impress further once you have had a look through. The appealing feature of this retirement village is that it is COMMUNITY TITLE (which means NO exit fees). There are three good sized bedrooms which include built-ins, the main bedroom has a large en-suite, and large walk-in robe and a modern bathroom services the home. The living space is inviting, with its large, open and light filled layout, leading to an enclosed outdoor room for you to enjoy the private level back yard. The stunning large modern kitchen is sure to impress and the large double garage also allows for lots of extra storage with internal access. This unique retirement village is set amongst the peaceful surrounds of Fullerton Cove, close to beaches, transport, shops and cafes. This luxurious village offers so much – some of which include: -Tennis court, bowling green, indoor heated pool and spa, bar and coffee lounge, Men's shed, billiards, darts and library, table tennis, regular social day trips and excursions. Also storage for caravans and boats.
