Discover comfort and security in this generously sized apartment within a well-maintained block. With a spacious layout, high ceilings, ample storage and a tandem lock-up garage this property offers it all. This residence features a spacious living and dining room that flows into a family sized kitchen as well as offering two generously sized bedrooms, balcony with park views and a laundry that's large enough to be a storage room. Positioned within a short walk to Oatley Village, the location of this apartment is both enviable and convenient. Whether you're embarking on your journey as a first-time buyer, seeking to downsize, or expanding your investment portfolio, this property presents itself as an alluring choice. Enjoy the charm of local cafes, explore boutique shops, and benefit from proximity to schools and the train station – all just a few steps from your doorstep. Awaken the possibilities and contact Jack Huggett on 0422 690 929.
