Perfectly located in the heart of Burwood, this property will surely tick all the boxes. Spread over 3 spacious levels, this townhouse will meet all your needs, whether you are a first home owner, growing family or savvy investor. Two generously sized bedrooms are located on the top level of this townhouse, with split system air conditioning/ heating to keep you comfortable all year around. An open plan kitchen and living area plus an oversized outdoor area is perfect for all your entertaining. All whilst making the family/ living area spacious and functional. Also having 1 bathroom, 2 toilets and a separate laundry that are all tiled make this property perfect for a low maintenance living. Deakin University, Chadstone, The Fashion Capital as well as many more primary and secondary schools are all just a short drive from your residence. Trains, trams and buses are all within walking distance. Including your own personal carpark this property has it all and will not be on the market for much longer.
