Nestled in a sought-after tree-lined street, this ground floor one bedroom north facing apartment offers privacy, security, and all the desirable features you're looking for. With undercover parking and a boutique low-rise building, you'll feel right at home. The generous floorplan is perfectly designed, creating separate zones that flow effortlessly. The north facing living and dining area invites streams of sunshine through its large windows, offering leafy views, while the renovated kitchen features elegant stone benchtops, a stylish tiled splashback, and fresh cabinetry that provides ample storage space. Hosting gatherings will feel effortless in this lovely space. The spacious double bedroom has accompanying built-in robes, while the refurbished ensuite bathroom integrates bath, shower and laundry facilities for your convenience. Situated in a coveted Blue Chip location, this apartment is just moments away from Armadale Reserve and Union Street Gardens. Explore the vibrant cafes and shopping precincts of Malvern, Hawksburn, and Chapel Street at your leisure. For easy commuting, you'll find trams on High Street and Dandenong Road, Kooyong Road buses, and Armadale train station all within walking distance.
