The big picture. You can endeavour to stay home but you'll find that this stunning apartment is simply no match for the exciting invitation to try every dining experience within this sought-after locale. Part of the boutique 'Stella' development, this designer abode is the ideal place for rejuvenation before heading out for a tasty bite or balancing these culinary discoveries with some exercise at the Hawthorn Aquatic and Leisure Centre or along the Yarra River. The finer details. Embraced by a massive three-side wrap-around balcony that sits up in the treetops and features a bar where you can watch the world go by with your friends, this alfresco space seamlessly joins the living/dining room. Entertain effortlessly at home with the help of a stone kitchen fitted with Fisher & Paykel stainless steel appliances. The extras. Just seconds from the Hawthorn Library and a pleasant walk to Swinburne University, all your retail and dining needs will be met along bustling Glenferrie Road. With a tram right at the door that travels between Kew and St Kilda Beach, stroll easily to the train for a swift journey into the city or in the other direction to the Riversdale Road tram bound for Camberwell Junction and Richmond's dynamic entertainment precinct. • Contemporary two bedroom design • Master bedroom with balcony access • Modern floorboards • Split system air-conditioner • Video intercom • Secure basement car space (no car stacker) • Storage cage • Unrestricted parking on Glenferrie Road
