Acquire your very own private family sanctuary, in a quiet court location, shielded from the outside world. The hidden gem that sprawls over 4000m<sup>2</sup>, providing a secure and expansive playground for children to run and play freely and safely in your own backyard. Established gardens, including a flourishing veggie patch, and fruit trees contribute nature's bounty to your family's table. This home is your escape from the urban hustle and bustle, tailor-made for a family seeking tranquility. From the house, the pool area and flourishing gardens offer a serene backdrop for your family gatherings. In addition, a delightful conservatory/study area provides tranquil moments, and the meticulously maintained garden, with its solar-heated pool, provides a captivating vista. The private studio, connected to the home, is a versatile canvas of possibilities. Whether you're accommodating extended family, creating a retreat for teenagers, or offering a warm welcome to guests, it serves as an extension that enhances the charm of this family haven. Inside, the house boasts elegant marble floors and spacious living zones that radiate warmth and relaxation. The master bedroom, graced with a lavish spa bath en-suite, adds an extra layer of luxury to the home. A double car garage with convenient roof storage completes the package. This retreat is just minutes away from the tranquil Lysterfield Lake. With easy access to the freeway, top-tier schools, a nearby IGA and shopping complexes ensuring you remain connected to essential amenities while savouring the serenity of your own private haven.
