More like a townhouse than an apartment, this unique home is set in a squeaky clean and secure complex gives you the very best in low maintenance living within walking distance of Central Dandenong's great shops, cafes and market. Fully renovated, everything is near new here and oozes with quality and style, ready to simply move into and enjoy or rent out. Stepping inside you instantly notice the matte finished ironbark floors, fresh paint and stylish venetian marble plaster highlights that are complemented by flawless presentation. There's an open living/dining room that includes a fully featured renovated kitchen, a clever drop down desk and an integrated Euro style laundry and storage area under the stairs. Move upstairs and you'll find the 2 bedrooms with built in wardrobes and an impressive bathroom with double vanity and toilet. In addition, there's a split system heater/air conditioner in the living room, panel heaters and ceiling fans in the bedrooms and double privacy/block-out blinds throughout. A car space and storage shed in the basement style secure garage which also has remote gate access and plenty of visitor parking. Inspect today !
