Big, bright and boutique, this enviably proportioned two bedroom townhouse with study nook is a real surprise package. Delivering contemporary living in a secure, low maintenance setting, this meticulously presented home features large scale living domain incorporating dining space and spotless kitchen displaying all electric appliances. Large glass aspects illuminate the home with abundant natural light and provide seamless indoor/outdoor connection to a north-facing courtyard inviting alfresco dining and entertaining opportunities. Upstairs, finds study nook with added storage and two double bedrooms, with built-ins and balcony access, served by a main bathroom and separate toilet. Plus, powder room, under stair storage and European laundry. Exceptionally well-maintained by its one and only owner, it enjoys polished floorboards, high ceilings, split-system air conditioner, secure intercom entry and off street parking space. Mere footsteps to cafés, shops, schools, parks and transport, and only a short distance from Keilor Road precinct, Westfield, Essendon Fields, Melbourne Airport, freeways and CityLink, the location is super impressive.
