Occasionally, along comes a property with life changing appeal. Such an address can rightfully be considered a once in a lifetime opportunity and this classically comfortable residence and its huge Altona Bay Estate block offers both these attributes! A tightly held court location emphasizes the attraction and promotes the potential for creating the family future you've always wished for. Substantial land size and established gardens. Large living room features a bay window. Central dining and separate family room. Kitchen zone is updated, stylish and efficient. Main bedroom, walk-in robe, original ensuite. 2 further bedrooms both include built-in robes. Original bathroom, large separate laundry. Pergola entertaining with rear garden aspect. Ample parking, garage and storage shed. Wide side drive highlights the allotment size. Dimensions deliver exceptional scope, STCA The ease with which the 100 Steps of Federation, Carlsson Reserve, Queen of Peace Parish Primary School, extensive parklands and Central Square shopping can be reached from this quiet court reveals one of the reasons why it's so tightly held - its family friendliness is obviously another. An outstanding opportunity.
