A surprise inside, with soaring timber ceilings and brick feature walls, this spacious home offers an easy living style for the young family. With two living areas including the huge lounge and dining at the front of the home, soaking up the warmth of the fireplace. The adjoining rumpus room opens directly onto the northern outdoor entertainment area which overlooks the fully fenced backyard. The kitchen has plenty of benchspace and is fitted with electric appliances including a dishwasher. At the rear of the home, there are four built-in bedrooms, including an ensuite and walk in robe in the main, with the family bathroom and separate toilet close by. On a fenced, flat block, extras include double garage with internal access, air conditioning and a garden shed. In the Gabbinbar State School and Centenary Heights school catchments, you will love living here!.
