In a pocket of Shortland chronicling images of a bygone era, sits a period home on a large block with its own story or two to tell. Many a family have lived in this home over the years, and it has been well loved, as evidenced by the modernised kitchen at the rear, but uneven flooring and peeling paint hint that perhaps it is time for a new chapter. With its sizeable flat block, this address would lend itself to a variety of options. Convenience is key in this property's location, as it enjoys excellent access to public transport with the pedestrian overpass to Sandgate Station literally just around the corner. For car commuters, the Newcastle Inner City Bypass is also easily accessible, providing rapid connections to both directions. Get ready to paint yourself a new future and come and inspect today. Features include:- 4 bedroom home,- A single bathroom with full-sized bath, shower and vanity.- Sizeable front and back lawn area with level block- Modernised kitchen with plenty of storage- Outdoor laundry with original concrete tubs and original outhouse- Free-standing garage- Large level 639m² block- Handy position for public transport via Sandgate Station and an easy commute to major arterial routes via the Newcastle Inner City Bypass- Golf lovers will appreciate the easy access to the Newcastle Golf Practice Centre
