The home you have always dreamed of but can never find is finally on the market. Offering everything you could ever wish for, this custom built masterpiece is highlighted by a no expense spared build featuring 9 ft ceilings on both levels, jarrah hardwood flooring and grand staircase, extra wide hallway, multiple formal and informal living & entertaining spaces, side and rear roller door access from garage, an absolute top of the range kitchen, massive bedrooms serviced by high end bathrooms and a wonderful design where bi- fold doors intertwine the inside with outside forming a huge indoor/ outdoor zone for hosting those special family occasions. With such a special home ill just let the photos do the talking with this one as the enormous amount of special features and extra detailed touches are just too many to mention here. With homes in the area just not built to anywhere near the standard of this one, a super rare forever home opportunity awaits one lucky family. Inspection highly recommended to appreciate exactly what is on offer and be prepared to be blown away!!!
