An exciting opportunity awaits for those who desire a sparkling brand new single level home, built to the finest of quality boasting a range of spectacular features at Hereford Hill Estate. Due for completion November 2023. The interior of the home is clever and meticulously designed, taking into account busy families who require open plan living, entertaining and areas to retreat and unwind. Feel right at home when you're entertaining guests or simply cooking for the family as the beautiful caesarstone kitchen offers all the bells and whistles for a luxe lifestyle, all within comfortable reach of the dining and living area, seamlessly connecting to the alfresco for that great Australian indoor/outdoor living. The master bedroom offers a spacious yet private haven complete with walk in robe and stunning ensuite. A separate theatre room and three additional bedrooms all with built-in robes form the remainder of the floorplan, with the bathroom and separate WC centrally positioned. The laundry is well-sized for growing families and there is an abundance of storage and linen cupboards scattered throughout the home.
