Here is your chance to own a large five bedroom home in the extremely popular Port Sorell area. Set in a quiet court this home offers modern living at an affordable price. The combined open plan living zones are spacious and light filled and the well positioned kitchen sits between the dining and casual living zone and offers easy access to the undercover alfresco area and entertainment deck. All bedrooms enjoy built in robes and the versatile floor plan offers great space for blended or large families. The main bedroom has a walk-in robe and ensuite and the generous sized main bathroom has a separate bath and shower. Warmth is ensured all year round with a cozy wood heater in the lounge. There is a separate laundry with direct outdoor access, secure fencing ideal for children and pets and it is well located close to the primary schools, shops and transport. Positioned on a 745m² (approx.) level block with plenty of room for cars, boats and caravan and backyard access if you wanted to build a nice big shed.*The information contained herein has been supplied to us by sources which are considered reliable and we have no reason to doubt its accuracy.
