This contemporary four-bedroom brick-clad property is a home to grow into, a home to nurture and a home to make it your own. With street appeal, the perfectly presented property features entry into a central hall, a street-facing formal lounge and the main bedroom with a large picture window, a walk-in robe and an ensuite with a shower, a double basin vanity and a separate toilet. The hall opens into the spacious open-plan kitchen with dining and second living that leads out to the 6.4m x 3.1m alfresco entertaining area. The kitchen provides a butler pantry, a freestanding gas cooktop with an oven, a dishwasher, plenty of storage, a double sink and an island bench that also allows for additional seating. The dining and living space capture views of the surrounding rolling hills, farmland and poplars, enhance the beautiful borrowed landscape. To the back of the home are three bedrooms with built-in robes, a rumpus room, a large linen cupboard, a family bathroom with a bath, a shower, a vanity, a separate toilet and a laundry with storage and external access. A double secure carport with external and internal access completes the floorplan. The home has ducted gas heating. The 707 sqm property has side access to the back garden with a water tank and is a clean slate ready for your personal garden design, pool or shed! The property is a short drive into Campbells Creek for a primary school, a post office, a playground, a hardware store, a cafe and a pub or a 7-minute drive into Castlemaine for additional retail, amenities, schools and the train to Melbourne and Bendigo. This light and neutral home allows you to make it a home to grow into, to nurture and to make your own. Plant your dreams today.
