Pittwater Escape

• fabulous family home or weekend getaway • the ultimate hideaway on magnificent Pittwater • bathed in northerly winter sun • waterfront reserve surrounded by national park • sun, sand & glistening waters on your doorstep This waterfront reserve family home or weekender has sparkling water views and a sunny, private, northerly aspect – the perfect lifestyle oasis for fun and relaxation. Surrounded by its pristine natural environment, crystal clear waters for swimming, fishing and water sports, small sandy beaches dotted along the shoreline, and an abundance of native wildlife and majestic bushland as far as the eye can see - Coasters Retreat is a wonderland for young and old. Off the beaten track where simplicity reigns supreme with no roads, cars or shops this little known water-access-only protected coastal inlet is approximately one hour north of Sydney CBD and just 10 minutes by ferry to Palm Beach, or 5 minutes by water taxi or private boat. 7 Coasters Retreat features:

- 683 m2 land with northerly aspect
- prime location at Bennetts Wharf
- fabulous views of Pittwater & Kuring-gai Chase National Park
- all day winter sun and cooling summer breezes
- open plan lounge, dining and kitchen
- three bedrooms or two bedrooms plus separate studio
- one bathroom
- large verandah with remote controlled retractable awning
- low maintenance garden
- 35m to the water's edge
- adjoins the waterfront reserve and national park
- popular holiday destination with rental income potential
- live in as is or renovate/extend this solid well-built and well maintained home
- immense potential to add value
- water-access-only coastal inlet on Sydney's northern beaches

If you enjoy swimming, kayaking, boating, bushwalking, or just relaxing in harmony with the passing parade of wildlife and the mesmerising beauty of glistening waters and stunning sunsets, you too could be smitten by this rarefied location!
