This well presented family home offers a spacious floor plan and with lovely neutral décor and polished floors throughout provides the chance for a buyer to move in and relax or create their own dreams through selective upgrades. Entry to the home leads into the formal lounge room. The large family will love the 4 bedrooms with master featuring built in robes and private ensuite (toilet, hand basin) while built in shelves are fitted to bedrooms 3 & 4. An updated kitchen/dining area offers good cupboard & bench space with stainless steel appliances including gas cooktop with rangehood and oven. The sunken family room with gas heating is the perfect area for cosying up and relaxing with sliding door access flowing outside to the entertainment area. The home includes ducted evaporative air condition plus reverse cycle wall unit air conditioning ensuring full year comfort. The family bathroom features bath, separate shower alcove with heat/light/exhaust combo and the second WC. The fully fenced and private block of 640m² (approx.) provides carport with roller door, a paved undercover entertaining and storage shed. In a quiet court the property is situated close to shopping centres, school and public transport and offers plenty for the growing family or an addition to an investor's portfolio.
