Situated in the heart of Inglewood this architecturally designed home overlooks the Anzac Memorial Park. There are four bedrooms (upstairs) plus a fully renovated two-bedroom unit downstairs (Ideal for an extended family, granny flat or an additional income stream). The uniquely designed roof line provides natural lighting into the home. A natural air flow throughout the home is able to be managed by specially positioned windows and doors which can be opened to create breezeways. Positioned on 2024m² of residential land with two titles. Short walking distance to local shops and services.

Upstairs • Take the stairs at the front or rear • Water lift at rear • 4 bedrooms plus an office (or fifth bedroom) • Two hallways provide access to the bedrooms • Master has walk-in robe • Master and second bedroom face the memorial park • Storage cupboards throughout home • Modernised bathroom with shower, vanity with a generous sized countertop and tub. • Separate toilet • Large formal lounge room • Lounge and dining off kitchen with access to front entrance deck overlooking memorial park • Kitchen has an electric oven and cook top and a garbage muncher in sink • Gas heater centrally located • Fans

Downstairs • Fully renovated two-bedroom unit • Open plan living with access to a street level patio • Reverse cycle air conditioning • Kitchen with electric oven and cook top • Large, shared laundry with chute from upstairs • Double garage with controller roller doors

Additional features • Concrete driveway at rear • Ground level storeroom • Bore with sprinkler system • Rainwater tank

Don't miss this opportunity. Priced to sell at $525,000.00.
