This freshly updated and well-presented double-fronted cream brick veneer home is a perfect entry into the world of homeownership and a worthy prospect for investors. Recently freshly carpeted, with new floating floors and fresh paint throughout, the home's interiors are immaculate. Enjoy the charm and functionality of a quality hardwood kitchen, complete with stainless-steel gas benchtop cooking facilities, an under-bench oven and double-door pantry. The bathroom boasts a bath, shower and vanity area with the convenience of a separate toilet. All three bedrooms feature built-in robes and large windows that welcome in lovely filtered light, creating a warm, comfortable atmosphere. Gas central heating ensures cosiness during the colder months. With an enormous backyard and side access to the stand-alone garage plus workshop, this property offers great space for outdoor enjoyment and potential expansion. Nestled in a quiet court, and just minutes away from Waurin Ponds Shopping Centre, medical and community facilities, excellent schools, bus services and a quick trip to central Geelong or the Surf Coast, the convenient, accessible location adds yet more appeal to this terrific entry-level home.
