An architectural gem in an iconic court location, this flexible five bedroom plus study home is the epitome of Montrose living. Timber lined ceilings with exposed beams, brick features and large windows taking in Mt Dandenong and lush garden views set on a gorgeous 1389m² (approx.) block at the end of a quiet court. Expansive with large rooms and featuring a flexible layout that could suit a large or multi-generational household or buyers requiring a work from home space with separate entrance or studio. A leafy garden and flight of stone paved steps lead to the front door and beyond into a huge open plan living space making the most of garden views. Two fireplaces add further character and define different seating zones. The large well appointed kitchen/dining space delivers plenty of storage and bench space and dishwasher. Sliding doors in this vast space open to the front and rear yards offering superb garden entertaining or relaxation. An expanse of paving with BBQ area and covered deck enjoy stunning views to the Dandenong's and overlook the large private garden with treehouse, fabulous workshop, garden shed with storage and gate to laneway at the rear. Privately placed, the master bedroom also features a wonderful hill's view along with ensuite and walk in robe. While a further four bedrooms include an area at the other end of the home that could be put to a range of purposes. Additional features include large family bathroom and laundry, separate toilet, four split systems and large double carport. Surrounded by greenery, this wonderful family home is tucked away in a quiet location just a short stroll to the town centre with shops, childcare and primary school and an easy drive Mooroolbark station.
