Welcome to 7 Gardenia Grove Devonport, an ideal first home or investment property. This three-bedroom brick home is nestled in a peaceful no-through court and is perfectly positioned at the heart of everything essential including schools, shops, and transport links. Step inside and discover the spacious allure of the three generously sized bedrooms, with two already adorned with built-in robes, providing ample storage space. The living, dining and kitchen areas are the hub of the home that invite you to unwind and create cherished family moments. The recently refreshed interiors boast new floor coverings and paint, ensuring a contemporary and welcoming atmosphere throughout. As you explore further, you will be captivated by the expansive 817 sqm block that surrounds the home, transforming the backyard into a sprawling haven for your family's enjoyment. Picture your children playing freely, your pets revelling in their own space, and envision a thriving vegetable garden flourishing in the abundance of open space. Completing the package is a convenient carport and a garage that serves as a versatile storage area or a workshop for your hobbies and projects. Mature trees and low-maintenance gardens at the front not only enhance the curb appeal but also provide a cocoon of privacy.*The information contained herein has been supplied to us by sources which are considered reliable and we have no reason to doubt its accuracy.
