Perfect for the upsizing family, those who are downsizing and want the convenience of not being a slave to the maintenance of your home and gardens. A single attached garage with internal access offers a large amount of storage space, perfect for suitcases or the home handy person. The master bedroom has a great walk in robe with the ensuite accessed via this utility. Further up the hallway to the left are two bedrooms, both with built in robes. The master bathroom, separate wc and laundry are perfectly tucked away off to the right. The stunning open plan living area offers ample storage with a large breakfast eatery bench. The "L" shaped living area then gives way to an outdoor entertaining area with concrete base.
