Overflowing with the enchanting character of the Victorian era, this two-bedroom freestanding home is sure to warm hearts, showcasing a brilliant transformation to indulge modern living. Beyond a white picket fence and a beautiful native garden, a lacework verandah wraps around the home, introducing a stunning 11-foot interior draped with Spotted Gum floors, ceiling roses, and broad cornicing. A leadlight entrance paves the way to a vast lounge room where relaxation is enjoyed beside the warmth of a cast-iron open fireplace. The dining room and kitchen are connected for seamless entertaining, inspiring culinary excellence with a full appointment of Miele appliances, while smartly dressed in stone benches and glass splashbacks. Outside, a brick patio is splashed with sunshine, promoting alfresco dining amid easy-care landscaped gardens and includes views of the CBD. Each bedroom nurtures private retreat with generous space, both fitted with customised robes, sharing a sparkling bathroom with laundry facilities. Ensuring modern comfort with ducted heating and split system air-conditioning, the home is perfectly placed within footsteps of Kensington's eatery and shopping village, Kensington station, and an abundance of local parks, while an easy stroll to Flemington's renowned restaurants and bars, and just minutes from Melbourne's bustling CBD.
