Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac in an extremely popular area, this great family home is definitely worth a look! Brick veneer, the home is perched on a nice flat 799m² (approx.) block and has had some updates in recent times. There are three bedrooms, all with built-in robes and updates include the toilet, bathroom and the windows are double glazed, with solar panels to help with your electricity bill also. A second living area / rumpus room add to the appeal of the home for families and a double carport takes care of the carparking. Ulverstone is a beautiful seaside township with many parks for the kids to play, lovely beaches and all of your amenities at your fingertips.
