Opposite All Nations Park and a short stroll to High Street, this two bedroom Victorian is everything a first home buyer dreams of. Set at the heart of Northcote's shopping and entertaining precinct, brimming with character and showcasing a cleverly considered floorplan, this home with its lace-ironwork trims, lofty ornate ceilings and hardwood floors presents two spacious bedrooms with built-in robes that share a modern central bathroom. Open plan living and dining extends to decked alfresco gardens offering easy summer entertaining while Smeg appliances feature in an island kitchen with glass splashbacks. Modern conveniences including ducted heating, split system air-conditioner and an alarm ensure any savvy first home buyer or downsizer will lack for nothing near trendy High Street's fabulous shopping, cafes and trams.
