Located in the heart of Buxton and approx. 200m from the river is this 809m² vacant block just waiting for the new owners to build their ideal weekend getaway or dream home on. Buxton is a Picturesque river side village on the Isis River, a well-kept secret and known for its fishing and crabbing with easy water access to the waters of Hervey Bay. Buxton has a fantastic River side family playground with undercover BBQ's with picnic tables, and not forgetting the fantastic boat launching facilities. Buxton's general store offers great service and supplies for the township include post office, groceries, take away food, and liquor. If you are a keen fisher and looking for somewhere to retire or downsize to, act quickly as this property won't last long. Power available and sealed road frontage. Buxton is just a 20-minute drive into the Heart of Childers CBD where you will find everything you'll need. To book an inspection or you require more information call Andrew on 0408 335 435.
