Attention all buyers, upsizers and investors, your search is over!!

7 Jackman Court, Wyndham Vale. Situated in a lovely, quiet pocket of the city of Wyndham, this home is perfect for purchasers searching for their dream first home or an investment opportunity.

Entering the home, you have your living room on your right with a bar which is great for entertaining or can be removed to open up the living space, you have a newly installed wall heater that works like a treat! The dining room is spacious and great for a large table to fit, you have a perfect sized kitchen with loads of cupboard space, a cooktop and oven, which overlooks the dining area. Walking down the hall you have the laundry on your left which has a separate toilet and access to the back yard. You have three bedrooms all with built-in robes and a conveniently located central bathroom which has bathtub and shower. Walking out to the undercover outdoor entertainment area, which is ideal for hosting family gatherings, at the back you have so much space to turn it into something you desire, it's private and safe, great for kids or animals, and also potential subdivision in future (STCA).
