Certain to pull on your heartstrings, this quality home has been lifted into the 21st century with a flawless renovation while staying true to its Federation heritage. Stained glass windows, hardwood floors, ornate cornices and a fireplace are a charming backdrop to its beautifully modernised interiors. A great internal layout adds further appeal, with three bedrooms, a small office, two living zones and a statement kitchen and bathrooms. Plus, there's secure side access to a triple carport that doubles as a spacious alfresco retreat. Set on a quiet cul-de-sac with a good yard for children and pets, this is a timeless beauty ready for enjoyment.
