A family home situated in an established court presents a great opportunity to those looking for room to grow. Upon entry, you are greeted with a sitting room or home office and the spacious master bedroom is sure to impress with bay window, WIR and ensuite with large shower and private toilet. The remaining three generous bedrooms all with BIR's and ceiling fans are located at the rear of the home and serviced by a central bathroom. The fabulous open plan living area creates a central hub for everyone to enjoy and incorporates a family, meals and kitchen offering a large island and walk-in pantry. Double doors open to the large indoor/outdoor entertaining area, with vaulted ceilings and access to the backyard. The good size fully fenced rear yard offers side access with double gates leading to a large carport – perfect for the boat/caravan/trailer storage. Additional features include ducted central heating, two split system air conditioners, plenty of storage and a double remote-controlled garage with undercover access to the home. This property delivers a well-designed, family friendly floorplan ready for your family to enjoy now!
