Welcome to 7 Kiandra Close, a charming Queenslander nestled on a picturesque and elevated 851m². Offering 4 bedrooms plus study (or 5 bedrooms), this family home is in a sought-after position at The Gap and offers a tranquil lifestyle while being minutes to the city bus and great catchment schools. The home is welcoming with a spacious floor plan, offering an updated neutral palette and hardwood floors throughout. The fireplace in the large open plan dining and living area is guaranteed to keep your family cozy this Winter and the modern executive kitchen will be the hub for cooking those family meals together, as there is generous bench space for everyone to help and a plethora of storage. European appliances throughout and the direct access to the deck makes entertaining a breeze. There is also a separate living room that opens onto the deck, allowing space for everyone to relax and unwind. If you're hosting family and friends, there is plenty of room on your deck to enjoying a relaxing drink and the mountain views on offer, or head to the resort style pool and pavilion area for a tropical escape. There are four good sized bedrooms plus a 5th bedroom/ study at the back of the home, allowing separation for a great home office. The main bedroom offers contemporary interiors plus a beautifully renovated and chic ensuite, with stone benchtops, pendant lighting, and a free-standing bathtub. This home is only 11 km to the city and offers an enviable lifestyle for families. Contact Jonathan Wein on 0430 485 430 for more information.
