Presenting to the market is this highly sought-after single-level 3-bedroom home set in an elevated off-street position in the heart of Robina. This family-friendly property is perfectly located within walking distance to shops, schools, parks and sporting fields, offering fingertip conveniences to suit every member of the family! Set on 702m², this well-designed home allows for 3 spacious bedrooms all with built-in robes and ceiling fans plus an additional study room. The master bedroom includes private ensuite, walk-in robe, ceiling fan and air conditioning. Additionally, this floorplan offers an oversized main bathroom with bathtub and shower, a separate toilet and internal laundry. Moving to the entertaining hub of the home you will find an abundance of space and comfort with an open-plan meals and living room area, large air-conditioned lounge room with a ceiling fan and semi-separate dining room. The massive galley-style kitchen exudes space and luxury with 2-way entry, well-appointed appliances and ample bench and cupboard space complimented with a relaxing view overlooking the pristine in-ground salt water pool that accompanies this beautiful home. Flowing out from the living room is a covered outdoor entertaining room that makes for the perfect place to entertain guests, enjoy alfresco dining all year round or simply a space to relax and take in the fresh coastal air! The finer details like neutral colour tones, timber look floorboards throughout, colour bond fencing, and retained front yard give this house the finishing touches to make it a home. This exquisite home includes a double secure garage plus extra off-street parking for the rest of the family or guests! Don't let this one get away, come and inspect today!
