UNDER OFFER! Located in a highly desirable pocket of Morley and close the borders of Dianella and Bedford, this stunning 1960s character home has been completely renovated to bring it into the 21st century, while still retaining all of its beautiful original features. Featuring 3 spacious bedrooms and 2 modern bathrooms, this home is perfect for families, couples or singles who are looking for comfort, style and luxury. With its beautiful new kitchen, 2 stunning bathrooms/laundry and feature timber wall panelling in the living and main bedroom, this home has everything you need to live your best life. The interior of this home has been finished to the highest standards, with every detail carefully considered to create a space that is both functional and beautiful. The gold tapware adds a touch of luxury to the bathrooms and kitchen, while the polished jarrah floorboards throughout the home give it a warm and inviting feel. The large original timber framed windows in this home provide an abundance of natural light, while the double brick construction ensures that the interior remains cool in the summer and warm in the winter. The beautiful original floorboards have been expertly restored to their former glory, adding a touch of character and charm to this stunning home. Whether you're entertaining friends, relaxing with family or simply enjoying some time to yourself, this beautifully renovated character home has everything you need to live your best life. Don't miss out on the opportunity to make it your own!
