This distinguished Drouin residence proudly commands breathtaking views of the mountains, situated in one of Drouin's most coveted locations. Constructed by one of Warragul's premier builders, this home features four spacious bedrooms, including a full ensuite for the master, along with two additional bathrooms. Boasting three distinct living zones, including a formal lounge and dining area, an open-plan meals and living space, and an upstairs retreat, the residence offers versatile and comfortable living. The recently renovated kitchen is bathed in natural light and showcases ample storage space, complemented by exquisite stone benches. Careful consideration has been given to accommodation, with a double garage accessible via a URL and additional colorbond shedding that comes with its own separate driveway. Outdoor entertaining is a delight with charming verandahs, a beautifully heated in-ground pool, and a spa. This iconic property seamlessly combines elegance and functionality, creating an ideal environment for both relaxation and social gatherings.
