7 Moonbi Street Scarness is truly a stunning home with an imaginative layout offering you your very own slice of relaxed coastal living. Embracing storybook beauty, the inviting facade of dark fencing and lush greenery are designed to impress before you even enter this soulful home, brimming with charm. Its overall character is natural and understated with organic elements echoing its surrounds. Tastefully renovated and set amongst lovely landscaped gardens with the added bonus of privacy and water views this solid double storey property presents an unrivalled opportunity to own a truly stunning oasis, within minutes to the CBD, Shopping Centres, Schools and Hospitals. Offering a unique footprint which feels open and spacious with the opportunity for dual living, Air BnB or extended family living if desired. Entering through the front porch and trendy front door you will immediately realise this is no ordinary property. The foyer with designer floor tiles, leads into the lower level, which comprises of an open plan living area, kitchenette, and a bedroom and ensuite worthy of a picture in any home magazine. Venturing to the top floor via the timber staircase, again you will be mesmerized by the stunning styled interior. The open plan living leads onto the front balcony, the perfect place to catch the cool Summer breezes and water glimpses while enjoying a morning cuppa or a glass or 2. Together with a great size functional kitchen and dining room the floor plan offers laid back coastal living at its finest. Completing the top floor are 3 spacious bedrooms and once again an absolute stunning bathroom complete with a free standing bath. Set on a manageable 602m² block with established gardens and raised vegie beds – envisage you are holidaying in the middle of Italy enjoying a glass of vino with the family entertaining under the divine open pergola. And if a pool is desired there is plenty of room to install. With a wide electric gate leading into the extra big garage complete with workshop there is plenty of room for the man of the house to tinker and extra car spaces inside the secure front gate. If life is hectic and your home is your sanctuary, then 7 Moonbi Street Scarness is your retreat. Close the front gate to the world and feel the holiday vibe all year round in this absolute divine picture perfect home.
