Nestled on a picturesque corner allotment of 4047m² within delightful established gardens this well-designed and light-filled brick veneer dwelling offers peaceful country living less than 100kms from Melbourne's CBD. The home includes three robed bedrooms of which the main bedroom includes a WIR and ensuite bathroom. Additional features include an impressive lounge room with OFP, ceiling fan and French timber doors, a spacious and well-equipped kitchen with WIP, blackwood cupboards, laminate benchtops and tiled floor and open plan family room with wood heater, recently installed R/C SS and bay window. The home also includes brick feature walls, 2.7m ceilings throughout, a nine-panel solar system, town water connection and water tank. Outside there's a double brick garage with remote door, a veggie patch, woodshed, assorted fruit trees and lovely country vistas. The charming township of Pyalong includes a primary school, hotel, post office, sporting facilities including a golf course and bus services to local secondary schools. Enjoy the peace and tranquillity of country life and still be within easy reach of Melbourne.
