

7 Nielson Street, East Lismore, NSW 2480

Sold House

Wednesday, 10 January 2024

7 Nielson Street, East Lismore, NSW 2480

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Lyn Youngberry

$582,500

Discover the joys of family living in this lovely East Lismore home! Nestled in an elevated position, on a large allotment, take in the beautiful panoramic city views. Boasting three generous sized bedrooms and two spacious living areas, this home is perfect for first home buyers, families and investors. A north facing sunroom could be utilized as a fourth bedroom, toy room or a beautiful sun room for your morning cuppa and a good book. The lounge room is a cosy retreat, adorned with a charming brick fireplace and equipped with air conditioning for year-round comfort. Admire the classic elegance of 9 ft ceilings complemented by ornate cornices throughout, while the allure of hardwood floors concealed beneath the floor coverings promise potential. An updated kitchen offers loads of storage and is centrally located with the separate dining room adjacent. Outside, a generously sized allotment offers room for a pool and with space under the house for a workshop, provides both convenience and potential for creative projects. With proximity to schools, shops, and the university, this property effortlessly combines convenience with a serene residential setting. Features of this home:- Three generous sized bedrooms- Separate lounge room with cute brick fireplace and air-conditioning- 9ft ceilings with ornate cornices, hardwood floors hidden beneath floor coverings- Updated kitchen with loads of storage, dining room adjacent- Two living areas with additional north facing sunroom- Single lock-up garage- Elevated location, city views, large allotment Don't miss this opportunity to make cherished family memories in a home that combines timeless charm with so much convenience. Embrace a lifestyle where city views meet homely warmth.