Discover the charm of this historical Queenslander family home, nestled in the serene setting of Burrum Heads. As you arrive, you're welcomed through stained glass French doors into a grand, open-plan living and dining area. The space boasts chandeliers and vaulted high ceilings, evoking the elegance of the 1920s. The home has been updated with new flooring throughout, adding a modern touch that complements its classic features. Freshly painted interiors enhance the home's inviting ambiance. The fully renovated kitchen is spacious and perfect for both large families and entertaining guests. A separate, expansive media or rumpus room offers an ideal retreat for teenagers or a space for family gatherings. With five bedrooms and three bathrooms, including two bedrooms with their own ensuites, this property is versatile. It can easily be converted into dual occupancy or a bed and breakfast, providing an opportunity to generate income while enjoying the peaceful surroundings. For the handyman or those working from home, the property includes a fully insulated and powered commercial shed, along with an additional shed for parking cars, boats, campervans, or storage. Just five minutes away, you can launch your boat and enjoy the beach. Local amenities like the supermarket, café, hotel, and medical centre are also nearby. The Howard train station is a short seven-minute drive, offering convenient access to Brisbane. School-age children benefit from a local school bus service that picks up near the doorstep. Relax daily on the expansive veranda, soaking in the cooling breezes, reading a book, or enjoying the quiet. In the evenings, entertain family and friends with refreshments in this magnificent Queenslander home.
