Unrestricted views of St George's Basin, the last of its kind, make this 537m² block of land a remarkable opportunity to realize your dream lifestyle. As the final lot with water vistas from the original release, it holds special appeal. Situated in a sought-after locale within a new estate, its proximity to water, amenities, schools, sports facilities, and cafes enhances its allure. Its closeness to popular tourist spots like Jervis Bay and Huskisson adds value for both permanent residents and holidaymakers. Ready for construction in a new subdivision with all services available, it promises convenience for those embarking on a new journey in this area. Located approximately 2 hours south of Sydney and just 20 minutes south of Nowra, it offers accessibility to urban amenities while maintaining a serene coastal lifestyle.
