Welcome to 7 Plant Street, Stanthorpe - a meticulously renovated Queenslander that seamlessly blends classic charm with modern elegance. The culmination of 12 months of dedicated craftsmanship, this residence stands as a testament to its rich history, originally belonging to the esteemed Plant family for whom the street is named. Nestled in a central location, convenience is at your doorstep with proximity to all amenities. The 1012m<sup>2</sup> fully fenced block provides both privacy and ample space for enjoyment. Boasting 3 bedrooms, the master suite is a retreat with built-in robes and an ensuite, while bedroom 2 features a walk-in robe and bay windows. Stained glass and original frosted glass accents grace the interiors, casting a timeless allure. The main bathroom is a luxurious sanctuary, showcasing a claw foot bath and a separate shower. Additional highlights include a powder room, 2 living areas, and a dedicated office space. The heart of the home, the large kitchen/dining area, is a culinary haven with a Butler's pantry. The dining space seamlessly connects to a spacious timber deck, perfect for entertaining guests. Stay comfortable year-round with full air-conditioning, fans, and the warmth of two fireplaces, one of which is an original 1910 build. Practicality meets style with under stair storage and a laundry boasting generous storage solutions. Beautiful fittings and details abound, creating an atmosphere of refinement. Step outside to discover a charming cottage garden with original granite paving, a large shed with both car spaces and a workshop, and a convenient carport. For those who love to barbecue, there's a dedicated area at the back, ensuring delightful outdoor gatherings. Completing the picture is an original stone gardener's shed, adding a touch of history to the lush surroundings. Immerse yourself in the timeless allure of 7 Plant Street - where history, elegance, and modern living converge in perfect harmony.
