With its appealing façade and expansive floorplan, this freshly painted family residence provides a more commodious style of living with convenient appointments for an easy-care lifestyle. Light and bright throughout, a warm inviting entrance welcomes you and leads to three great size bedrooms all with built in robes, with the master bedroom serviced by a modern sparkling new ensuite. There is a large open plan lounge room which flows to an undercover alfresco area and is perfect for seamless indoor/outdoor entertaining. The kitchen/meals area features plenty of cupboard space, electric cooking facilities and overlooks the private large rear yard. There is a central bathroom, separate toilet and an internal full-size laundry for added convenience. Completed with a private secure rear yard, new split system cooling, double garage, ample off-street parking, plus a peaceful location with bus services at your doorstep and minutes away from swimming beaches and parklands, this lovely family home ticks all the boxes and ensures the perfect match of lifestyle with location.
