Fantastic opportunity to move the family into the quiet and humble township of Anakie in Central Queensland - only 30 minutes out of Emerald. The house has ample room for the whole family with 3 good sized bedrooms plus a sunroom which could easily be used as a 4th bedroom. The lounge room is spacious and also features a office area complete with built in corner desk and shelving. There is also a separate dining area with easy clean vinyl flooring. The U shaped kitchen has heaps of cupboard and bench space for the astute cook in the family. The bathroom has a shower over a full sized bath tub. The laundry is massive again with loads of cupboard and bench space. Outside the yard is fully fenced. There is a single carport for the family car and garden shed ideal for a secure storage area. The Primary School is less than 1 minute walk away too. For more information or to organise an inspection, phone 49877055 today. Property Code: 1349
