Built by its current owner and when quality of materials and workmanship mattered this much loved and meticulously maintained family home is a true testament to an era gone by. Whatever you see in the photos is over 50 years old but you would be forgiven to think it is much younger because it was built with quality materials and by expert builders of the past times. Lovingly maintained and looked after by the current owner who built the home it still presents like brand new half a century later and it will stand the test of time for many years to come. Proudly featuring:- Three large bedrooms, master with ensuite and all with BIR's- Large formal lounge and dining area plus kitchen and meals area- Gas ducted heating throughout as well and air conditioner in the living area- Single remote lock up garage with large workshop. Situated in a quiet court location yet only minutes away from local primary and secondary schools, recreational facilities and major arterials as well and half way between Dandenong CBD and Waverley Gardens Shopping Center.
