Step into a time capsule of mid-century charm with this virtual waterfront property offering a nostalgic journey back to 1962. Nestled along the scenic Derwent River, this residence boasts a unique blend of retro aesthetics and tranquil water views. This three-bedroom, two-bathroom home captures the essence of its era, maintaining much of its original charm. From the moment you step through the door, you're transported to a time where bold design and classic features reigned supreme. The living spaces exude a timeless appeal, with large windows inviting the stunning Derwent River views into every room. The retro ambiance extends to the rumpus room, perfect for entertaining or creating a family retreat. Indulge in the luxury of a sauna and an inground swimming pool, a touch that adds a spa-like experience to this already unique property. Built in 1962, this home is almost frozen in time, offering an authentic experience for those who appreciate the aesthetics of mid-century architecture. While the property remains in its original condition, it presents an exciting canvas for those with a vision for modernization. Enjoy the tranquility of the river with a separate garage adding convenience and storage space. The virtual waterfront location allows for picturesque moments by the water, creating a serene oasis right outside your door. This property isn't just a home; it's a time capsule waiting for a new chapter. If you appreciate the allure of mid-century design and seek a waterside haven, this is a rare opportunity to create a home that seamlessly blends the past with the present.
