Nestled perfectly in a tightly held court location and surrounded by established gardens and trees is this lovely private residence. Accessed via a long driveway, the neat and tidy brick veneer home offers four bedrooms with built-in robes, and a spacious living room with an adjoining formal dining room boasting split system air conditioning. The kitchen and meals area are light and bright and overlooks an expansive, north-facing pergola, an ideal place to relax or entertain family and friends. The centrally located family bathroom has been updated, and the laundry offers good storage. Outside, a double carport is connected to the pergola, so allows for undercover access from vehicles to the home plus there's an 8 x 6M shed/garage for additional storage/workshop. If you're looking for a solid family home on a large allotment in a quiet court location that you can put your personal touch on and make your own, then we suggest you have a look at this property.
